FASU CHAMPIONSHIPS

These are single sport championships were introduced to the program in 2012, with the 1st event being organized in December 2013. Competition in these events is by individual universities, unless under special consideration.

A bidder can choose to host one or three editions of the same championship.

Participants pay 25$ per person to FASU for Accreditation fees, while the host institution is allowed to charge up to 45$ per person per day to cover for full boarding and other organizational cost of participation. The number of days and participants depend on the individual sports program.

FASU GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND FASU/FISU/NUSF STRATEGIC DIALOGUE

A general assembly, held once every two years is a statutory obligation of FASU. This is usually a time for the executive to stand and be accountable to the members of FASU for the previous two years. This meeting MUST be held in March 2019 as per constitutional provisions.

Participation at the assembly is by Member National University Sports Federations, each represented by 3 participants (one of whom must be a student leader). The 4-day program includes a Strategic Dialogue (two days) whose participation is open to all stakeholders in university sports from Africa, and a cross country championship held on the same day of the General Assembly. Estimate of 120 – 150 participants in the meetings. FASU works with the hosts in regards to budget and concession.
